DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 9-10 are objected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 9, depending to claim 1. claims 1 recites a first hole, and first and second washer. All of the sudden claim 9, refers to a fifth hole and a fifth washer. It is unclear as why the hole numbering goes from 1 to 5, or the numbering of washers goes from 2 to 5. Perhaps applicant meant to depend claim 9 to claim 8.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rainey, US Patent Number 6969809.

Regarding claims 1, 3, Rainey B2, discloses a vehicle seat with features of the claimed invention including a substrate on which a first hole passing through from a first face to a second face is provided (see figure 6), a strain-detecting element provided on at least one of the first face and the second face (elements 54 on element 46 and 47), and a first fixing member including a first washer and a second washer (elements 80 and 90), the first fixing member being fixed onto the substrate by inserting at least one of the first washer and the second washer into the first hole so that the substrate is sandwiched and held with the first washer and the second washer (see figure 7).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rainey.

Rainey does not recite that the washers are press fitted, and use a screw and nut to securely connect the system together. It would have been obvious for a skilled artisan at the time of the invention to modify Rainey to use any desirable method to put the system together such as the use of press fit, because these methods all are used to tightly connect together.

7. Claims 4-8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
